

- 5 Hudson Valley Center for Contemporary Art
1701 Main Street, Peekskill, NY
hvcca.org / 914.788.0100

HVCCA is dedicated to the development and presentation of exhibitions and interdisciplinary programs that enrich our understanding of contemporary art, its contexts, and its relationship to social issues and operates a 12,000 square foot exhibition space.

- 6 Katonah Museum of Art
134 Jay Street, Katonah, NY
katonahmuseum.org / 914.232.9555

The Katonah Museum of Art originates ten to twelve exhibitions annually, covering a broad range of art and humanities topics. As a non-collecting Museum, the KMA has the opportunity to develop an aspect of art historical concern from a focused and original point of view, and presents it within a fully developed educational context. The Children's Learning Center, which is open to the public free of charge, is the only interactive space in the community where children can come on a daily basis to explore, interpret, and create art.

1 The Aldrich Contemporary Art Museum

258 Main Street, Ridgefield, CT
aldrichart.org / 203.438.4519

The Aldrich is one of the few non-collecting contemporary art museums in the United States. Founded in 1964, the Museum enjoys the curatorial independence of an alternative space while maintaining the registrarial and art-handling standards of a national institution. Exhibitions feature work by emerging and mid-career artists, and education programs help adults and children to connect to today's world through contemporary art.

2 The Barnum Museum

820 Main Street Bridgeport, CT 06604
barnum-museum.org / 203-331-1104

Conceived and constructed by P.T. Barnum, The Barnum Museum has been committed to the preservation and interpretation of Bridgeport's industrial and social history since 1893; celebrating the city's unique cultural heritage, achievement, and creativity.

3 Bruce Museum

One Museum Drive, Greenwich, CT
brucemuseum.org / 203.869.0376

Consistently voted the "Best Museum" by area media, the Bruce Museum is a regionally based, world-class institution highlighting art, science and natural history in more than a dozen changing exhibitions annually. The permanent galleries feature the natural sciences encompassing regional to global perspectives.

4 Hudson River Museum

511 Warburton Avenue, Yonkers, NY
hrm.org / 914.963.4550

The Hudson River Museum is a multi-disciplinary cultural complex set in Trevor Park, overlooking the Hudson River and the Palisades. With four major special exhibitions a year, live shows in the Andrus Planetarium, the fully restored historic house Glenview (1876), Hudson Riverama, an environmental teaching gallery, and a full program of lectures, music, gallery tours, special programs, and weekend family workshops, the museum is a great destination.
