Jim Foy

President and Chief Executive Officer, St. John's Riverside Hospital

Mr. Foy joined St. John's Riverside Hospital in 1993 as its President and Chief Executive Officer and quickly expanded its services. His strong commitment to preserving community-based health care drove the development of the Riverside Health Care System, a $250 million healthcare network. Jim Foy's leadership has been instrumental in forging many important partnerships, including those with The Mount Sinai Hospital and Hudson River Healthcare to enhance services to tens of thousands of patients as well as to be a leading resource for health education in the community.
